SOCIAL CENTER SHIFTS FOR DAY TO JAMESTOWN

American Society Abroad Becoming More Prominent As London Season Advances

From now on, Americans will figure more prominently in the social affairs of the European capitals, owing to the opening of the London gay season, and the great exodus of Americans for their summer trips

Up to the last few days the numbers sailing were not so great as in former years, but the crowds on on the outgoing steamers on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday have almost made up for it.

The American Ambassador to Great Britain and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid were much in the public eye in England Saturday, as the hosts of royalty, their guests of honor being the Prince and Princess of Wales. At the special request of their royal highnesses, the dinner was informal, although there was a large company.

Among the Americans present were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Robinson, the latter a sister of the President, and Miss Corinne Robinson, their daughter; the First Secretary of the American Embassy in London and Mrs. John Ridgeley Carter, the latter formerly Miss Morgan, of Washington, and their daughter, Miss Mildred Carter, who, with her mother, was a guest for some weeks last winter in Washington, and J. Pierpont Morgan, of New York.

Mrs. W. D. Norvell and Miss Isabel Goode Norvell, who have been spend-ing the winter in Washington, have re-turned to their home in Chase City.

Mrs. Hanna, widow of Senator Marcus A. Hanna of Ohlo, who sailed early this spring for Europe, has recently arrived in Paris, after motoring through Switzerland. She expects to sail for home late in this month and will probably come to her apartment on Sixteenth street for a short time, before settling down for the summer season.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Robinson, the latter a sister of the President, who took tea with the President of France and Mme. Faillieres on Saturday, have gone to London to make a short stay during the season which has just opened there.

CURED IN 3 WEEKS BY CUTICURA COSTING $1.50

"After having the measles my whole head and neck were covered with scaly sores about as large as a penny. They were just as thick as they could be. My hair all came out. I let the trouble run along, taking the doctor's blood remedies and rubbing on salve, but it did not seem to get any better. It stayed that way for about six months; then I got a set of the Cuticura Remedies, and in about a week I noticed a big difference, and in three weeks it was well entirely and I have not had the trouble any more, and as this was seven years ago, I consider myself cured. I used one bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, one box of Cuticura Soap. I think it a splendid medicine, and I recommend it whenever I can. Mrs. Henry Porter, Albion Neb., Aug. 25, 1906."

EVANS' WIFE AND DAUGHTER RETURN HOME

Set Alleged Wife Beater's Trial For Monday Next.

GLEN ECHO, Md., May 13.-Richard Evans, of this place, arrested on Friday last, charged with cruelly whipping his wife and daughter, and who is now out under $400 bond pending his appearance at trial Monday next, secured the assistance of peace envoys immediately after his release and was rewarded yesterday by seeing his wife and daughter return to his home. Edward Boswell, a brother of Mrs.

dropped, however, and Mrs. Evans has tify against her husband when the case is called at Rockville on Monday. It is said that Bessie, the seventeenyear-old daughter, has by no means forgiven her father for the thrashing administered her, and will also tell of the affair at the trial.

Former Beatings Alleged.

Residents of Glen Echo, who have known Evans for some time, state that this is at least the third time that Evans has been charged with missing the control of the control Evans has been charged with wife beating. On one occasion the case was com-promised, while on another, about three years ago, it is stated that Evans was let off with a fine of $10 and costs, by Justice of the Peace Austin, and took an oath not to indulge in the pastime of wife whipping again.

This nominal fine was really in the nature of a compromise, as the Maryland laws do not provide for any such punishment for wife beating, the statpunishment for wife beating, the statutes prescribing the whipping post or a year in the penitentiary. The neighbors relate that in past years Mrs. Evans has remained away from her home a week or more at a time, following a periodical family disturbance.

Wife's Brothers Aroused.

The brothers of Mrs. Evans, however, declare that there will be no comprocase will be vigorously prosecuted with street road, and it is the method pura view to having the full penalty in-flicted upon Evans. The return of Mrs. accounting for the funds which has flicted upon Evans. The return of Mrs. Evans to her husband is regarded by them as but a temporary flag of truce and they feel it will not prevent her going on the stand and telling the truth about the alleged assault. Anticipating such action, Evans has employed able counsel in the person of Attorney Edward C. Peter, of Rockville, and will flight the case. He will contend that he did not strike Mrs. Evans intentionally, It is understood that he will admit chastising his daughter because she remained out too late at a dance.

It appears that Mrs. Evans interfered in her daughter's behalf and Evans explains the bruises on his wife's body by alleging that she got in the way and received some of the licks intended for the suit filed against the daughter. Mrs. Evans interfered in her daughter when the daughter of wardings for the growth as brought about the suit. The bill in equity alleges that Myron M. Parker and George E.
